OCT/NOV/DEC 2010

HIGHLIGHTS

Coachville Halloween Party in October
Watch for details!

Winter Reminder

Winter is approaching; please remember to check your heat tape. Make sure it is in working order, don't wait until your pipes freeze!

Special Thanks ...

... to everyone who has been keeping up their yards! Your cooperation keeps our community looking its best, and is very much appreciated by management!

Recommended Reading

Samuel Clemens, best known as the author Mark Twain, was born on Nov. 30, 1835.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trash Pick Up

Please do not put garbage to the curb until Friday mornings.

Enjoy Autumn

The air is crisp; the trees are changing color, the days are getting shorter. Time to dig out your favorite sweaters and go for a bank walk in the park. Fall is upon us again!

Office Closed

Nov. 25 and 26, Thanksgiving.

We need your email address, stop by the office for details.

NOTES & NEWS

Home Sweet Home!

Home is where the heart is, and we want to offer you a heartfelt welcome to our community. Please welcome our new neighbors George and Olivia Molter and family, Shu Su, and Oscar Razo.

Franklin Home Sales

Franklin has homes for sale in Coachville and surrounding communities in the area. Contact (734) 971-1370 for more information!

Coachville Resident Referrals

Refer a friend, family member, coworker, even someone in the check out at the grocery store, to purchase a Franklin home and we will put $500 in your hands!

Congratulations

Congratulations to Maria Moto for winning the homesite award for the month of August! Keep up the great work, everyone, and you could be in our next spotlight!
